FROM THE DIRECTOR'S DESK

"Education is not the learning of facts, but the training of the mind to think"

These profound words by the great Albert Einstein are the bedrock on which our school's philosophy rests. The spirit of the school is its infrastructure, the management, students, and staff who work unitedly to make it a living and breathing entity. All our efforts, our work and our endeavours revolve around providing wings to each and every student's potential be it academic, social or emotional level.

At Vatsalya preschool, we have consciously created a welcoming ecosystem where nature, knowledge and compassion are in abundance and synergy with each other. A student is well rounded with a global outlook, resilient in nature with a strong determination to be the best version of themselves. It has been the school's strong belief that inculcating interest in other domains of learning is essential to develop an expansive world view.

Sports and creative activities inculcate skills and impact learning that cannot simply be learnt from a book. Together, a holistic approach to education is what shapes a person, preparing them to forge their own path in life and take forward those around them, we will continue to strive to sustain an environment, where opportunity, guidance, and ultimately success knows no bounds. We believe that our dreams are achievable because our students are an integral part of our Growth journey. We proudly invite you to visit us to explore our facilities and look forward to interacting with you on new horizons and possible initiatives as we progress towards creating a bright and progressive future for our young generation.

Storytelling

WORLD ELEPHANT DAY

On the occasion of World Elephant Day, Our little learners stepped into the magical world of storytelling with “The Helpful Elephant and the Blocked River.” Through this heartwarming tale, children enjoyed learning about Golu, a kind and helpful elephant who saves the forest animals.

The engaging storytelling session encouraged children to listen, imagine, participate, and understand the importance of kindness, helping others, teamwork, and caring for nature. It was a joyful learning experience that brought the story to life through fun costumes, expressions, and active participation.

Storytelling

Once upon a time, there was a beautiful forest where many animals lived happily. There were deer, rabbits, monkeys, birds and a big, kind elephant named Golu.

One summer day, the animals noticed that the small river was not flowing properly. A large fallen log was lying across the water and blocking its way. The little animals could not move it.

Storytelling

“Oh no! We need water,” cried the deer.
Golu came to help. He looked at the big log and said, “Don’t worry, friends. I will help you!”

Storytelling

With his strong trunk and powerful body, Golu pushed and moved the heavy log away from the river. Soon, the water began to flow freely into the forest.

All the animals thanked Golu.

“You are not only big and strong, Golu. You have a kind heart too!” said the deer.

Storytelling

Golu smiled and said,
“When we help one another, everyone can live happily.”

Storytelling

🌿 Moral: Elephants are important friends of the forest. They help other animals and keep the forest healthy.
